

Invitation to an international Conference Martyr Soleimani School and the New Islamic Civilization

The authentic Islamic teachings and the role of martyrs, elites and Muslim thinkers show that the personality of Prophet Mohammad, and imams (peace be upon them) are indicators of monotheism, freedom, peace, justice, security, and the preservation of human dignity in the path of divine civilization.

Concepts such as justice, security, and the pursuit of human well-being are great examples of humanity, and they are one of the important goals of the mission of the prophets, the righteous saints and the righteous martyrs, including the martyr Soleimani, in fighting against oppressive and tyrannical regimes in order to establish and consolidate peace and justice in the world, which is one of the lofty concepts of the school of Martyrs.

Therefore, the Islamic World Peace Forum, and considering its mission (showing and finding the path of the new Islamic civilization), and with the aim of analyzing the Martyr Soleimani School in this regard and with the basic belief that this school should be based on justice and human dignity and its great definition in the world for the sake of inspiration and freedom, it was decided to hold the third international conference of the Martyr Soleimani School and the new Islamic civilization.

And based on the holding of the first and second conferences and focusing on the role of the martyr Soleimani in developing security, justice and regional and global peace and welcoming the elites and different societies, considering the important conditions of the region and the world and the unique role of the martyr Hajj Qassem Soleimani in fighting against terrorism that everyone concessive, even the arrogant, and the need to talk about the school of that Martyr and its Effects To reach a new Islamic civilization, it was decided to hold an international conference with the title "The Martyr Soleimani School and the New Islamic Civilization."
