

Isfahan International Children's Painting Festival

February 2022

1. Summary

We all are living in cities that are home to culture, art and science. Wandering around our city, we can see things that are enjoyable for us, and the memories come flooding back while we see them. All of us love the city where we live and wish our own city had a special thing or character. Draw us your city, the city in which you live.

2. Applicant Requirements
